

Why Study in Switzerland

With so many universities to choose from in top destinations around the world, what attracts so many students to Switzerland? And why is EHL the first choice of students seeking a hospitality school in Switzerland?

BEST COUNTRY

Switzerland is the best country in the world for education and innovation.

#1 for the past 8 consecutive years on the UN innovation index,

#1 for 11 consecutive years at the World Intellectual property organization,

#1 country for the quality of the education system and staff development re.World Economic Forum

INTERNATIONAL CULTURE

Switzerland is home to many international organizations and has 23% foreign population. Experience a truly multicultural environment.

BETTER EMPLOYMENT

Over 80% of international employers actively search for graduates who have studied abroad. Switzerland hosts a big number of expatriates and foreign students, and it is home to a large number of international organizations, or corporate headquarters, (QS Global Employer Survey Report 2018)

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Switzerland has many top-ranking universities, which deliver programs in English. Switzerland also has 4 national languages and a large proportion of the population speak English fluently

ACCESS TO UNIVERSITY

In Switzerland, unlike many countries, there are no entrance exams for universities. However the quality of students remain high with admissions requirements based on personal and academic profiles.

SOFT SKILLS

Employers consider adaptability and collaboration among the top skills they look for (Linkedin 2019), and studying abroad will help you develop a global outlook and cultural awareness. Switzerland offers a safe and laid back environment to learn these skills.

THE ART OF PERFECTION

The Swiss are experts in the art of precision and finery with most watch, jewelry and other micro-mechanical industries based in the country. Switzerland hosts a number of specialized clinics and medical treatment centers